

ABCD Training for DLEG, MiRSAs and 21st Century Regions
Lisa Hadden, Trainer, Healthy Community Partners
Saginaw, Michigan

Cool Entrepreneurial Web sites

<http://www.energizingentrepreneurs.org/content/chapter3.php> - Center for Rural Entrepreneurship, lots of resources and case studies for rural communities

<http://www.nfte.com/> - Helps empower kids from low-income communities by becoming entrepreneurs

<http://www.fastcompany.com/social/2007/profiles/profile10.html> - Entrepreneurs that are changing the world – social entrepreneurs

<http://www.se-alliance.org/> - Excellent social entrepreneur site, register to receive newsletters, etc

http://www.managementhelp.org/soc_entr/soc_entr.htm - More social entrepreneur's info for forward thinking non-profits

<http://www.fourthsector.net/for-benefit-organizations.php> - (Site on “for-benefits” a cross between non-profits operating “like” for profit but with social mission)

<http://www.pbs.org/opb/thenewheroes/whatis/> - More great social entrepreneur sites for communities

<http://www.wearethenewradicals.com/> - Baby boomers that are reinventing their work or retirement to “save the world.”

http://www.ashoka.org/social_entrepreneur - One of the premier sites for social entrepreneurs and lists funding sources for venture philanthropy

<http://www.littletongov.org/bia/economicgardening/> - The ultimate example of Economic Gardening: in Littleton, Colorado - Most widely used example of how a small rural town used its local assets to create economic development growth

<http://www.athenaalliance.org/apapers/eda.html> - Awesome article of Knowledge Management and using the ABCD approach offered by the Athena Alliance

<http://www.lisc.org/section/areas/sec1> - A national group supporting economic development community style

<http://www.civicventures.org/overview.cfm> - Cool site on the Experience Corps, matching seasoned workers and executives with projects and entrepreneurs in the community

